FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Wire Fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 as charged in Count 1 of the 2 Count Indictment.

JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $14,760,325.00 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $15,634,325.00 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10 percent of gross monthly income or $150, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Rohan Conrad Grant, is hereby committed on Count 1 of the 2-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 87 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state or federal law or ordinance;
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Officer, located at the United States Court House, 411 West Fourth Street, Suite 4170, Santa Ana, California 92701-4516;
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;
6. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation;
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer; (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns and a signed release authorizing their disclosure and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income, expenses, and liabilities of the defendant;
8. The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request;
9. The defendant shall obtain and maintain full-time conventional employment. The defendant shall submit all employment offers which the defendant intends to accept to the Probation Officer for prior approval so the Probation Officer can verify the legitimacy of the employment. The defendant shall keep the Probation Officer apprised of the defendant's work schedule; and

10. The defendant shall not be self-employed, or employed by a business owned by a family member or close personal friend, without prior approval of the Probation Officer. If the defendant is self-employed, or employed by a business owned by a family member or close personal friend, the defendant shall allow the Probation Officer to perform a reasonable number of random audits of business records with the assistance of an auditor or accountant, at the expense of the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court strongly recommends that the defendant be housed in any facility on the East Coast to facilitate visitation with family, friends and loved ones.

Defendant advised of his right to appeal.

On government's motion, all remaining counts dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
